Please join the YWCA Westmoreland County for a “Circles of Diversity” film viewing and discussion event. Exploring Diversity Through Film will be held on Thursday, September 13, 2018 at the YWCA Westmoreland County. The event, sponsored by the YWCA Westmoreland County Racial Justice Committee, will feature four short films that raise questions about the themes of race, class, disability and aging. Audience members will have an opportunity be a part of the discussion following each viewing as to the nature of everyday bias, stereotypes and the public’s reactions to differences.
